

A Meeting of Parwich Parish Council will be held on Wednesday, 16th June 2021 in the Memorial Hall at 7:30 pm.
To be followed by the Parish Annual Meeting.

The Parish Council is no longer permitted to hold Council meetings using video conferencing.
This meeting will therefore be held in person.

A risk assessment has been carried out and measures to reduce the risk of coronavirus transmission will be in place.

These will include, but may not be limited to, sanitising, distancing and the wearing of masks.
Members of the public attending the meeting will be asked to comply with these measures.
Total attendance will be limited to 30 including members of the public.

To reduce the numbers who may wish to attend the parish Annual Meeting the Council will provide for village organisations to submit written reports for publication on the Parish Council's website if they prefer.

Members of the public are none the less welcome, and entitled, to attend both meetings in person if they wish.
