For information

There are usually 10 Parish Council meetings each year, held on the third Wednesday of each month, with the exception of August and December. Councillors have to abide by a code of conduct and complete and sign certain documentation which becomes a public record.

It is expected that all councillors attempt to attend all meetings wherever possible. The meetings usually start at 7.30 pm and generally last two to three hours. Members of the public can attend the meetings to contribute, raise issues and listen to proceedings.

More information about being a councillor can be found on the Parish Council website including:

1. The Good Councillors' Guide.
2. Minutes of Parwich Parish Council
3. Policies of Parwich Parish Council

Training for Councillors can be provided through the Derbyshire Association of Local Councils.
