

Introductory notes.

Standing Orders in grey are rarely, if ever, used but are reproduced from the model Standing Orders for completeness. They may be little used simply because the situations in which they are applicable are not often experienced. Or because they relate to activities beyond the scope of Parwich Parish Council at the time of review. They remain applicable should the relevant circumstances arise. So in general it will be sufficient for Councillors to be familiar with the Standing Orders in black and aware that they can refer to those in grey should the need arise.

Text in blue reflects material from the model standing orders that has not been incorporated in the Parish Council's Standing Orders because it does not reflect the manner in which the Parish Council has chosen to operate. It is included for reference when reviewing the Standing Orders but is not otherwise applicable. No mandatory content from the model standing orders is treated in this way.

1. Rules of debate at meetings

The model Standing Orders contain numerous provisions for formal tabling, debating and voting on motions. These formalities remain available to balance the powers of Councillor's to get what they want debated, and the powers of the Chair to prevent the rules being used to frustrate the business of the Council.

However the more typical discussion style adopted by the Council is outlines in item "u".

- a Motions on the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear unless the order is changed at the discretion of the Chairman.
- b A motion shall not be debated on unless it has been proposed and seconded.
- c A motion on the agenda that is not moved by the Councillor who tabled it, may be treated by the Chairman as withdrawn.
- d If a motion (including an amendment) has been seconded, it may be withdrawn by the proposer, but only with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- e An amendment is a proposal to remove or add words to a motion. It shall not negate the motion.
- f If an amendment to the original motion is carried, the original motion (as amended) becomes the substantive motion upon which further amendment(s) may be moved.
- g An amendment shall not be considered unless early verbal notice of it is given at the meeting and, if requested by the chairman of the meeting, is expressed in writing to the chairman.
- h A councillor may move an amendment to his own motion if agreed by the meeting. If a motion has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- i If there is more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion, the amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the chairman of the meeting.
- j Subject to standing order 1(k), only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the chairman of the meeting.
- k One or more amendments may be discussed together if the chairman of the meeting considers this expedient but each amendment shall be voted upon separately.
- l A councillor may not move more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion.
- m The mover of an amendment has no right of reply at the end of debate on it.
- n Where a series of amendments to an original motion are carried, the mover of the original motion shall have a right of reply either at the end of debate on the first amendment or at the very end of debate on the final substantive
